Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Friends:

Re: BC Fed Young Workers' School – Camp Jubilee – September 15, 16 & 17, 2017

The BC Federation of Labour Young Workers' School is intended for union members between the ages of 19 and 30 who want to meet other young activists and learn more about the labour movement and political action.

Camp Jubilee is located on the Indian Arm on the North Shore and this year will take place September 15-17. In addition to coursework, attendees will be able to participate in a variety of outdoor activities and connect with other young workers from around the province.

The emphasis will be on building skills related to the labour movement, political and community organizing and leadership. Engaging young people in the labour movement is essential to the health of our unions and communities.

Please find enclosed an HEU application form, things you need to know, and the workshop descriptions that you need to choose from.

Successful applicants will have wage loss, registration (which covers accommodation and meals), per diems (for travel days only), and transportation covered by HEU.

PLEASE NOTE: This is a camp environment NOT a hotel or resort. Please read the enclosed information closely.

Please contact young workers, encourage them to apply, and post this information widely.
Applicants should complete the attached forms in full (please make more copies if needed) and forward them to Candice Klein via fax: 604-739-1510 or mail, HEU, 5000 North Fraser Way, Burnaby BC, V5J 5M3 by 12:00 p.m., Thursday, August 10, 2017.

If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact Candice Klein at 604-456-7129 or toll-free 1-800-663-5813 or by email cklein@heu.org.

In solidarity,

Victor Elkins
