ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

1.01 The purpose of this agreement is to set forth terms and conditions of employment affecting employees covered by the agreement. The parties agree to foster and promote an environment free from harassment.

Encourage the practice and procedures of collective bargaining between Employer and the Union as the freely chosen representative of our employees.

Encourage the cooperative participation between the Employer and the Union in resolving workplace issues, adapt to changes in the economy, develop workforce skills and develop a workforce and a workplace that promotes productivity.

1.02 Human Rights Code

- (a) The Employer and the Union subscribe to the principles of the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.
- (b) The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee for reason of membership or activity in the Union.

1.03 Procedure for Filing Complaints

- The Union and the Employer recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from harassment, including sexual harassment.
- An employee who wishes to pursue a concern arising from an alleged harassment may register a complaint in writing with the Employer or through the Union to the Employer designate.
- If a complaint is registered, it shall be handled in a timely manner in accordance with the Company's harassment policies.
- All persons involved with the complaint shall hold all aspects of the complaint and all related information in the strictest confidence. Failure to do so may result in discipline, up to and including dismissal.

- Unresolved complaints of harassment may be pursued through the grievance procedure initiated after this process has been completed.
- Both the complainant and the alleged harasser shall be entitled to Union representation if they are members of the bargaining unit.

1.04 Respectful Conduct in the Workplace

The parties are committed to promoting a work environment in which all those who enter the workplace will conduct themselves in a civil, respectful, and cooperative manner. A safe environment is important for staff and contributes to providing the highest possible standard of care. Staff should expect to work in, and residents and patients should expect to be treated in an environment where the risk of violence is minimized.

The Employer has policies for promoting and maintaining a working environment in which all persons are treated with respect and dignity. These policies will be accessible to staff and managers regarding expectations and consequences of inappropriate behaviour, aggression and violence.

Individuals who work for the Employer are responsible for conducting themselves in a respectful manner in the workplace and at work-related gatherings. Failure to maintain respectful conduct will lead to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

A Respectful Workplace is characterized by:

- (a) Polite Behaviour – defined as courteous and considerate behaviour toward others;
- (b) Inclusion – of people with different backgrounds, cultures, strengths and opinions;

- (c) Safety – from disrespectful, discriminating, bullying and harassing behaviour;
- (d) Dispute Resolution Processes – differences will be managed through dispute resolution processes including, but not limited to Article 1.03 of this agreement; and
- (e) Support – individuals will be supported to learn and practice personal dispute resolution and respectful workplace skills.

1.05 Workplace Bullying

4.03 This Article will not be used in a discriminatory manner against any person, employee or group of employees (including trade unions or their members) and management rights under this Article shall not be exercised in any way inconsistent with or contrary to any express terms or provisions of this Agreement.

4.04 Managers Excluded from Bargaining Unit Work

Management shall not perform work of the bargaining unit, except for the purposes of training, quality control purposes, occasional rest periods and meal breaks, or in cases of emergency when employees covered by this Agreement are not available, and provided that the performing of such work does not reduce the hours of work of any employee scheduled to work.

ARTICLE 5 - STRIKES, LOCKOUTS, LEGAL PICKET LINES

5.01 No Strikes or Lockouts

During the term of this Agreement, there shall be no strike action by any bargaining unit employee, the Union or any person acting on behalf of the Union, whether or not such strike action has been authorized by the Union; nor shall the Employer lock-out bargaining unit employees.

5.02 Legal Picket Line

Refusal to cross or to work behind a picket line that is legally established pursuant to the Labour Relations Code of B.C. shall not constitute cause for discipline or dismissal. The Union shall appoint one (1) alternate representative. On the written request of any of its member(s), the Union Management Committee shall meet at least once every two (2) months during the term of this Agreement, to discuss issues, including workload relating to the workplace that affect the Parties or any employee bound by this Agreement. The purpose of the Union Management Committee is to promote the cooperative resolution of the workplace issues, to respond and adapt to changes in the economy, to foster the development of work-related skills and to promote workplace productivity. Employees shall receive their basic rate of pay for time spent in attendance at the Union Management Committee.

To assist with the discussion of any outstanding grievances and to comply with the intent of the Grievance Procedure and meet the timelines as outlined in Article 7, a grievance meeting may be scheduled on the same day as the Union Management Committee meeting.

Time spent in the grievance meeting shall be paid at their basic rate of pay.

ARTICLE 7 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The Employer and the Union recognize that the goal of this grievance procedure is to attempt to resolve a grievance at the earliest possible opportunity with the least amount of time and resources.

7.01 Grievance Investigations

A shop steward or Union committee member shall obtain the permission of their immediate supervisor prior to leaving their work duties to undertake Union responsibilities. Such permission will not unreasonably be withheld where operational requirements permit. Paid leave will be granted for:

- (b) Attending meetings called by management;
- (c) Investigation of employee complaints of an urgent nature.

The shop steward or Union committee member agrees to notify their supervisor on resuming their normal duties.

7.02 Right to Have Steward Present

The employee shall have the right to have Union representation present at any discussion with supervisory personnel where the supervisor intends to interview that employee for disciplinary purposes. The supervisor shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the meeting in order that the employee may contact a shop steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

7.03 Grievance Procedure

For the purposes of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as:

- (a) A difference arising between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the Agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.
- (b) The dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee bound by this agreement. Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letters of reprimand, and adverse reports or performance evaluation.

7.04 All grievances, with the exception of grievances pertaining to dismissals or lay-offs shall proceed as follows:

Step 1

The employee shall take the difference to the Employer manager with or without a Steward (at the employee's option) within seven (7) calendar days from the date the employee knew or reasonably should have known of the incident giving rise to the grievance.

The employee (with or without their Union representative), and their Manager or designate will attempt to resolve the difference at Step 1.

Step 2

Failing settlement at Step 1, the employee, steward or a servicing representative shall within twenty-one (21) days of the event giving rise to the difference, put the grievance in writing, including articles allegedly violated and remedies sought, and meet with the applicable manager or designate and endeavour to settle the matter. The Manager or designate shall acknowledge receipt of the grievance by signing and dating the grievance form at the time it is presented. The Manager shall respond to the grievance in writing within seven (7) days of the Step 2 meeting.

Step 3

Failing settlement at Step 2, the Union committee shall, within fourteen (14) days of the Employer's response in Step 2, meet with the applicable Manager/Director or designate to discuss the grievance.

At this step of the grievance procedure, each party shall exchange copies of all relevant documentation available to date. The findings or decisions of the Employer/Union shall be presented to the other party in writing within seven (7) days of the meeting. If the grievance is not settled at this step, either party may refer the grievance to arbitration under either Article 7.08 or 7.09 within twenty-eight (28) days of the receipt of the response at Step 3.

The referring party will notify the other party of the selection of the arbitrator prior to assigning the grievance in writing to the arbitrator.

Grievances of a general nature may be initiated by a member of the Union Committee in Step two of the grievance procedure.

7.05 Dismissal or Lay-off Grievance

The following procedure shall be used for any grievance arising from a dismissal or lay-off:

- (a) Within seven (7) days of the dismissal or lay-off, the Union shall notify the Employer in writing of its grievance of same. Such grievances shall be heard at Step 3 of the grievance procedure within ten (10) days of the Employer's receipt of the Union's written grievance.
- (b) At this step of the grievance procedure, each party shall exchange copies of all relevant documentation available to date. The findings or decisions of the Employer/Union shall be presented to the other party in writing within seven (7) days of the meeting. If the grievance is not settled at this step, either party may refer the grievance to arbitration under either Article 7.08 or 7.09 within fourteen (14) days of the receipt of the response at Step 3.

The referring party will notify the other party of the selection of the arbitrator prior to assigning the grievance in writing to the arbitrator.

7.06 Employer Grievance

Any Employer grievance shall proceed directly to Step 3 within twenty-one (21) days from the date the Employer knew or reasonably should have known of the incident giving rise to the grievance.

7.08 Expedited Arbitration

- (a) Either party may refer an unresolved grievance to an expedited arbitration process within the time limits allowed at Step 3 of the grievance procedure. Arbitrators shall be chosen from the list of Arbitrators at Article 7.09 and must be able to comply with the terms of this Article.
- (b) Dates and locations for expedited arbitration hearings shall be by mutual agreement in a location central to the geographic area in which the dispute arose.
- (c) All presentations are to be brief and are to include a comprehensive opening statement. The parties agree to make limited use of authorities during their presentations.

- (d) Prior to rendering a decision, the Arbitrator may assist the parties in mediating a resolution to the grievance.
- (e) Where mediation fails, or is not appropriate, a decision shall be rendered as contemplated herein.
- (f) The decision of the Arbitrator is to be completed and delivered to the parties within three (3) working days of the hearing.
- (g) Any decision of an Arbitrator is to be limited in application to that particular dispute and is without prejudice. Expedited arbitration decisions shall have no precedential value and shall not be referred to by either party in any subsequent proceeding.
- (h) All settlements of proposed expedited arbitration cases made prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.
- (i) The parties shall equally share the costs of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.
- (j) The Expedited Arbitrator shall have the same powers and authority as an Arbitrator established under the provisions of Article 7.09.
- (k) It is understood that it is not the intention of either party to appeal a decision of an expedited arbitration proceeding.

7.09 Arbitration

- iii) the referring party will notify the other party of the selection of the Arbitrator prior to assigning the grievance in writing to the Arbitrator.
- (c) The Arbitrator chosen for an expedited arbitration process shall be the first Arbitrator contacted who is able to meet and hear the grievance within thirty (30) days of the date of appointment.
- (d) The Arbitrator will be restricted to interpreting and applying the provisions of this Agreement and will have no authority to alter, modify, subtract from, or supplement the provisions of this Agreement in any way.

- (f) The Arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding on both parties.
- (g) The Parties will bear an equal proportion of the fees and expenses of the arbitration.

7.10 Time Limits

Time limits may be altered by mutual consent of the parties. The consent must be given in writing and will not be unreasonably withheld.

In circumstances whereby the party who originated the grievance does not follow the grievance process within the prescribed time limits and an extension has been granted, the grievance will be deemed to have been abandoned without further recourse, except where extenuating circumstances exist.
