AND

HOSPITAL EMPLOYEES’ UNION
(the “Union”)

WHEREAS the parties have met in good faith to bargain the renewal of the July 5, 2022 - July 4, 2025 Collective Agreement;

AND WHEREAS, except as specifically noted in the Collective Agreement, all provisions of the renewal agreement become effective as of the exaction of the agreement by the parties;

AND WHEREAS the parties have agreed to recommend the following terms for renewal of the Collective Agreement for acceptance and ratification:

ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE

1.01 The purpose of this agreement is to set forth and establish the terms and conditions of employment for those who come within the scope of the agreement and to provide a procedure for the timely disposition of grievances.

1.02 It is the mutual intent of the parties that all employees, managers, and Union representatives treat each other with dignity, respect, courtesy and trust, and that these principles shall also apply in all dealings with residents, visitors, doctors, administrators, and non-bargaining unit employees.

The Employer and the Union share a commitment to provide high quality, therapeutic, accessible, affordable healthcare to the communities we serve. The Employer and Union further agree that they use their best efforts to provide the highest level of resident care and that they will work together to improve the lives of the people and communities they serve by respecting the inherent value and worth of each person; working together with people who support common values and visions to achieve shared goals; acting in ways that demonstrate compassion and promote respect for all persons and each other; cultivating the resources entrusted to promote healing and wholeness; and exceeding expectations through teamwork and innovation.

The parties recognize that the business in which the company is engaged is highly competitive and that the company must be able to maintain an efficient, cost-effective operation and improve itself in a highly competitive market. The Union also recognizes that it is essential to ensure a high level of resident service and to maintain the flexibility necessary to meet resident needs without interruption or interference with work.

The parties recognize that the business in which the Employer is engaged is highly competitive and that the Employer must be able to maintain an efficient, cost-effective operation and improve itself in a highly competitive market. The parties also recognize that it is essential to ensure a high level of resident service and to maintain the flexibility necessary to meet resident needs without interruption or interference with work.

ARTICLE 2 - SCOPE AND RECOGNITION

2.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agent on behalf of the employees for whom the Union has been certified as bargaining agent with respect to wages, hours of work, terms and conditions of employment during the life of this agreement.

2.02 Persons not in the bargaining unit, including employees, may perform any work assigned to them whether performed by bargaining unit members or otherwise. It is not the intent of this provision that layoffs of bargaining unit members would occur as a result of such assignment, or that such work would be regularly assigned to non-bargaining unit persons, unless such work was not exclusive to the bargaining unit prior to the application of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 - DEFINITIONS

3.01 A regular full-time employee is one who works full-time on a regular scheduled basis for thirty-five (35) hour per week or more.

An employee who works seven-and-one-half (7.5) hours per day on a "4 on and 2 off" schedule on a regular basis shall be considered to be a regular full-time employee.

3.02 A regular part-time employee is one who works less than full-time on a regular scheduled basis.

3.03 A casual employee is one who is not regularly scheduled to work other than as described in Article 29.

ARTICLE 4 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Subject to the provisions of this agreement, the Union acknowledges that the Employer has and retains the exclusive right and responsibility to manage its facilities as it sees fit, including but not limited to the following:

- (a) To hire employees and to direct the working forces, including the right to decide the number of employees needed by the Employer or required for any task, to organize and assign the work, to schedule shifts, to maintain order, discipline and efficiency of all operations.
- (b) To discipline or discharge employees for proper cause.
- (c) The Union agrees all employees shall be governed by all rules as adopted by the Employer and published to employee on bulletin or notice boards, or by general distribution, provided such rules are not in conflict with this agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION DUES

5.01 The Employer agrees to the deduction of all Union dues, assessments, initiation fees, and written assignments of amounts equal to Union dues.

5.02 The deduction of monies deducted in accordance with the above paragraph, shall be remitted to the Union by the Employer, in a period not to exceed twenty-one (21) days after the date of deduction.

5.03 The Employer shall provide the Union's provincial office with a list of all bargaining unit employees hired, and all bargaining unit employees who have left the employ of the Employer (who shall be designated as terminated and shall include discharge, resignations, retirements and deaths) in the previous month. This list will include their employee status and the amount of dues or equivalent monies currently being deducted from each employee. Such information shall be provided in an electronic format, such as Microsoft Excel, and will be provided securely in an agreed upon fashion to memberupdates@heu.org.

5.04 The Employer shall supply each employee, without charge, a receipt in a form acceptable to Revenue Canada for income tax purposes which receipt shall record the amount of all deductions paid to the Union by employees during a taxation year. The receipts shall be mailed or delivered to employees prior to March 1st of the year following each taxation year.

5.05 Twice every calendar year the Employer shall provide to either the secretary-treasurer of the local or the senior Union official, a list of all employees in the bargaining unit, their job titles, addresses and their telephone numbers known to the Employer. Such information shall be provided in an electronic format, such as Microsoft Excel, and will be provided securely in an agreed upon fashion to memberupdates@heu.org.

5.08 All employees hired after the date of execution of this Collective Agreement shall join the Union and maintain membership as a condition of employment.

5.09 Employees who are not members shall have the equivalent of regular Union dues deducted from their wages in accordance with the Dues Check Off Provision 5.01 and 5.02 of this Collective Agreement.

5.10 The Union shall indemnify the Employer in respect of any disputes concerning the application of this clause.

ARTICLE 6 - UNION REPRESENTATION

6.01 Shop Stewards

The Employer agrees to the operation of a shop steward system which shall be governed by the following:

- (a) Shop stewards may be appointed by the Union to a maximum of three (3) plus one (1) alternate shop steward for the bargaining unit as a whole.
- (b) The Employer is to be kept advised of all shop steward appointments and changes.
- (c) One (1) shop steward or Union committee member shall be appointed by the Union as lead shop steward, who may present or assist in the presentation of any grievance.

- (d) When the absence of more than one (1) shop steward or Union committee member shall interfere with the Employer's operation, then no more than one (1) shop steward or Union committee member shall be given leave of absence to transact Union business at any one time.
- (e) When a shop steward or Union committee member is the only employee on duty in a work area, and where their absence would unduly interfere with the Employer's operation, then the shop steward may be refused leave of absence to transact Union business.

6.02 No shop steward, Union committee member, or employee shall leave their work without obtaining the permission of their immediate supervisor. The Employer shall be advised of the approximate duration of absence and notified upon return to duties. The Employer agrees that permission will not be unreasonably denied. At no time shall a shop steward interrupt an employee while such employee is carrying out their duties.

6.03 Bargaining Committee

A bargaining committee of no more than three (3) employees and one (1) alternate may be selected by the Union.

6.04 The Union and/or the employees covered by this agreement will not engage in Union activities during working hours or hold meetings at any time on the premises of the Employer without the written permission of the Employer. The Employer agrees that permission will not be unreasonably denied.

6.05 Union Representative Visits

The Union shall inform the Employer when a Union representative intends to visit the Employer's place of business for the purpose of conducting Union business. Such visits will not interrupt the operation of the facility and will be at a mutually agreeable time. The Union recognizes the Employer is a contractor on site and Union access to the facility is subject to the Employer obtaining permission from their client.

6.06 Bulletin Board

A reasonable portion of the Employer's current bulletin board will be allocated to the Union for the posting of Employer/Union business only.

6.07 Orientation

New employees will be advised that a Collective Agreement is in place and be provided with the name of their shop steward.

The Employer shall give the shop steward or designate and the new employee an opportunity to meet within regular working hours without loss of pay for up to fifteen (15) minutes during the first thirty (30) days of their employment.

ARTICLE 7 - NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

In view of the orderly procedure established by this agreement for the processing of grievances, the Union agrees that during the life of this agreement there will be no strikes, picketing, slow-down or stoppage, either complete or partial, and the Employer agrees that there will be no lockout.

ARTICLE 8 - JOINT CONSULTATION COMMITTEE

8.01 On the request of either party, the parties must meet at least once every four (4) months, for the purpose of discussing issues relating to the workplace that affect the parties or any employee bound by the agreement.

8.02 The purpose of the consultation committee is to promote the cooperative resolution of workplace issues, to foster the development of work-related skills and to promote workplace productivity, and to identify opportunities for improved patient care.

8.03 Up to two (2) employees who are members of the joint consultation committee shall be granted leave without loss of pay or receive straight-time regular wages while attending meetings of the committee, up to a maximum of two (2) hours' pay.

8.04 Pay for such meetings will be limited to two (2) hours and employees attending such meetings will not receive overtime wages.

ARTICLE 9 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

9.01 The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise concerning:

- (a) differences between the parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of a provision of this agreement, including questions as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration; or
- (b) dismissal or discipline of an employee bound by the agreement.

The purpose of this article is to provide the sole method for the settlement of a grievance alleging the violation of a specific provision of this agreement. The Employer and the Union recognize that the goal of this grievance procedure is to attempt to resolve a grievance at the earliest possible opportunity with the least amount of time and resources.

Such a grievance must be presented and processed in accordance with the steps, time limits and conditions set forth herein.

Step 1

The employee, with or without a shop steward or Union committee member (at the employee's option), shall first discuss the grievance with their immediate supervisor or department head within seven (7) calendar days of the occurrence of the grievance. In this first step, both parties shall make every effort to settle the dispute. If the grievance is not settled at this step, then;

Step 2

The grievance shall be reduced to writing within a further seven (7) calendar days by:

- a) recording the grievance on the appropriate grievance form, setting out the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose;
- b) stating the article of the agreement infringed upon or alleged to have been violated and the remedy or correction required;
- c) the grievance shall be signed by the employee and a shop steward or Union committee member;
- d) the supervisor shall acknowledge receipt of the written grievance by signing and dating the grievance form at the time the grievance is presented; and
- e) within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the written grievance, the supervisor or the department head shall give their written reply. If the grievance is not settled at this step, then;

Step 3

The Union committee and the Employer or its delegate, shall meet within twenty-one (21) calendar days or other mutually agreed to time to discuss the grievance. At this step of the grievance procedure, each party shall provide to the other a statement of facts and copies of all relevant documents. The findings or decisions of the Employer shall be presented to the Union in writing within seven (7) calendar days of the meeting. If the grievance is not settled at this step, either party may refer the grievance to arbitration within a further twenty-one (21) calendar days.

9.02 Union Representation

No shop steward, Union committee member, or employee shall leave their work without obtaining the permission of their immediate supervisor. The Employer shall be advised of the approximate duration of absence and notified upon return to duties. The Employer agrees that permission will not be unreasonably denied. Employee shop steward or Union committee member discussions shall take place where residents are not affected.

9.03 Grievance Investigations

Where an employee has asked to be represented by the Union in relation to the presentation of a grievance and a shop steward or Union committee member wishes to discuss the grievance with that employee, the employee and the shop steward shall, where operational requirements permit, be given reasonable time off without loss of pay for this purpose when the discussion takes place at the worksite.

Shop stewards and Union committee members shall be permitted to represent an employee's interest without loss or pay when such meetings are scheduled during the shop steward's hours of work.

9.04 Policy Grievance

Where either party to this agreement disputes the general application, interpretation, or alleged violation of an article to this agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer, their designate or the Union within fourteen (14) calendar days of the occurrence.

Where no satisfactory resolution is reached, either party within a further twenty-eight (28) calendar days may submit the dispute to arbitration as set out in Article 10 of this agreement.

9.05 Dismissal/Suspension for Alleged Cause

Employees dismissed or suspended for alleged cause shall have the right within seven (7) days after the date of dismissal or suspension to initiate a grievance at step 3 of the grievance procedure.

Unless circumstances warrant a more significant disciplinary response, the Employer will adhere to the practice of progressive discipline consistent with Pro Vita policy and the BC Labour Relations Code.

Any verbal or written warning shall be removed from the employees file after the expiration of twenty-four (24) months from the date it was issued, provided there has not been a further infraction.

9.06 Mandatory Time Limits

The time limits contained in Article 9 are considered substantive and may only be extended or waived by written agreement of the parties. Any grievance, which is not commended or processed through the required steps in accordance with these times limits is subject to a claim of abandonment and the parties agree that arbitrators should only relieve against a failure to follow time limits in an exceptional case.

9.07 Right to Have Steward Present

This provision shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature and do not involve imposition of disciplinary action.

Where a member of management intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the member of management must notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee has the right to contact their shop steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

9.08 Right to Grieve Disciplinary Action

Employees shall have the right to grieve written censures or warnings, and adverse employee appraisals. Employees shall have the right to rebut in writing any disciplinary notice and that rebuttal will be placed in the employee file, but will not be part of the formal disciplinary record.

Should an employee dispute any such entry in their file, they shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure, and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of their personal record.

ARTICLE 10 - ARBITRATION

10.01 Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation application or administration of this agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this agreement has been violated, either party may, after exhausting the grievance procedure, notify the other in writing of the referral of the grievance to arbitration. The parties will deliver the notice to the other party within twenty-one (21) days of the reply under step 3.

10.02 In the event that the representation of the Union and the Employer cannot agree on a sole arbitrator within thirty (30) calendar days after the request for arbitration, the matter shall be referred to an arbitrator from the list below:

- Amanda Rogers
- Chris Sullivan
- Elaine Doyle
- Julie Nichols
- Koml Kandola

10.03 Each party shall bear the expenses of its participants and witnesses and for the preparation and presentation of its own case. The fees and expense of the chair and the hearing room and any other expenses incidental to the arbitration hearing shall be shared equally by the parties.

10.04 The arbitrator shall have no authority to alter, modify, add to, subtract from, or amend any part of the agreement.

10.05 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties.

ARTICLE 11 - HOURS OF WORK

11.01 It is understood and agreed that the provisions of this Article are intended only to provide a basis for calculating time worked and shall not be considered a guarantee as to the hours of work per day, number of days of work per week nor as a guarantee of work schedules.

The workweek shall provide for continuous operation Sunday through Saturday.

The hours of work per day for each regular full-time employee covered by this agreement shall be seven-and-one-half (7.5) hours per day, exclusive of mealtimes.

Where the Employer intends to introduce a work schedule that differs from the current work schedule, it will first review with the employees at the local level and with the HEU servicing representatives prior to implementing the new schedule.

11.02 The Employer shall post the work schedule at least fourteen (14) calendar days in advance of its effective date.

11.03 There shall be a minimum of twelve (12) hours off-duty between the completion of one work shift and the commencement of the next. When it is not possible to schedule twelve (12) consecutive hours off-duty between work shifts, all hours by which such changeover falls short of twelve (12) consecutive hours shall be paid at overtime rates in accordance with Article 12.

11.04 An unpaid meal period of one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour will be scheduled as close as possible to the middle of each shift of five (5) paid hours or more and shall be taken away from the work area.

Employees required by the Employer to work during their scheduled lunch break because of an emergency will have their lunch break rescheduled to an alternative time during that shift. Employees whose lunch break is not rescheduled will be paid for the meal break at straight-time rates.

11.05 Employees are entitled to the following rest and meal breaks:

Paid Hours	Meal Break	Rest Break
5 or less	None	1 paid 15 minute
More than 5 but less than 7.5 hours	One half hour unpaid	1 paid 15 minute
7.5 hours	One half hour unpaid	2 paid 15 minutes

11.06 When operational requirements permit, a regular employee may exchange shifts with another regular employee provided prior approval is received from the department manager, and the exchange does not result in an entitlement for premium pay. Shift exchanges between employees working different schedules (i.e. 5 hour shifts vs. 7.5 hour shifts) will be permitted, provided the exchange does not result in an entitlement to premium pay. A form must be completed and signed by the exchanging parties seven (7) days prior to the date of the exchange, unless the department manager approves an exchange in less than seven (7) days. Employees are solely responsible for working the shift they sign for in the voluntary shift exchange agreement.

ARTICLE 12 - OVERTIME

12.01 When an employee is requested to work overtime on a scheduled work day or on a scheduled day off, the employee may decline to work such overtime except in cases of emergency. Only in cases of emergency will an employee be required to work overtime.

When an employee does not agree that an emergency exists, the employee shall work such overtime under protest and may file a grievance.

12.02 Overtime shall be paid at the rate of time-and-one-half (1.5x) for all hours worked beyond eight (8) hours in a day, and double-time (2x) for hours worked beyond eleven (11) in a day.

Calculation of daily overtime entitlement is separate from weekly overtime entitlement.

12.03 Overtime shall be assigned in order of seniority as follows:

- a) Regular full-time and part-time employees;
- b) Casual employees.

It is understood that the provisions of this section do not apply where an employee works approved overtime hours in order to complete their normal work assignment.

The Employer will not be required to call in an employee when the anticipated overtime can be completed in three (3) hours or less and there are employees already working who are willing to work the overtime. Such hours will be assigned by seniority where more than one (1) employee volunteers for the overtime offer.

ARTICE 13 - STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

13.01 Employees will be entitled to eleven (11) statutory holidays and such other holidays as may be in future proclaimed or declared by the provincial government.

New Years' Day
Family Day
Good Friday
Victoria Day
Canada Day
BC Day

Labour Day
National Day for Truth and Reconciliation
Thanksgiving Day
Remembrance Day
Christmas Day

13.02 Statutory Holiday Pay

Employees who qualify for statutory holiday pay shall be paid an average day's pay on the statutory holidays above, based on the following: amount paid / days worked.

“Amount paid” is the amount earned by the employee for work done during the thirty (30) calendar day period preceding the statutory holiday, including vacation pay but excluding overtime pay.

“Days worked” is the number of days the employee worked or earned wages during that thirty (30) calendar day period.

13.03 Employees who qualify for statutory holiday pay under Article 13.02 shall not receive statutory holiday pay if:

- a) they are scheduled to work the statutory holiday and fail to do so; or
- b) they fail to work their scheduled workday immediately preceding and following the statutory holiday(s), unless such absence has been approved in advance by the Employer.

13.04 Employees who are required to work on a statutory holiday shall be paid at the rate of time-and-one-half (1.5x) in addition to any statutory holiday pay owing. Employees who are required to work on Christmas Day be paid at the rate of double-time (2x) in addition to any statutory holiday pay owing. Entitlement to premium rates of pay and statutory holiday pay will be based on the day the employee starts their shift, in accordance with the BC Employment Standards Act.

13.05 The Employer shall make every effort to schedule either Christmas Day or New Year's Day off for employees so requesting.

13.06 If an Employer scheduled statutory holiday occurs within an employee's vacation period, an extra day's vacation will be allowed for each statutory holiday so occurring.

ARTICLE 14 - ANNUAL VACATIONS

14.01 Employees with less than one (1) year of service shall be entitled to four percent (4%) vacation pay if they leave the service of the Employer prior to their first anniversary.

14.02 Employees will be entitled to vacation time and vacation pay as follows:

- (a) Employees with one (1) or more years of continuous service shall have earned three (3) weeks' vacation at six percent (6%) vacation pay, based on gross earnings.
- (b) Employees with five (5) or more years of continuous service shall have earned four (4) weeks' vacation at eight percent (8%) vacation pay, based on gross earnings.
- (c) Employees with fifteen (15) or more years of continuous service shall have earned five (5) weeks' vacation at ten percent (10%) vacation pay, based on gross earnings from the previous year.

14.03 Vacation Requests

Regular employees become eligible for paid vacation leave once they have completed six (6) months of continuous employment.

Vacations requests must be submitted by no later than January 31st to be scheduled for the vacation calendar year of April 1 - March 31. Vacation time may be divided into blocks of one to two weeks in duration.

Scheduling of vacation shall be in accordance with seniority within a classification. Where an employee chooses to split their vacation, they shall exercise seniority rights in the choice of the first vacation period. Seniority shall prevail in the choice of the second vacation period but only after all other first vacation periods have been selected. Remaining vacation periods will be scheduled in a fair and equitable manner amongst employees within a classification. The approved vacation schedule will be posted at the worksite on or before February 28th in each year.

Employees will be limited to booking a maximum of two (2) consecutive weeks of vacation during prime vacation period (June 15 - September 15; and December 15 - January 5), unless further consecutive weeks would not interfere with the vacation preferences of less senior employees. The Employer will make every effort to accommodate requests for vacation of more than two (2) consecutive weeks outside of prime vacation periods.

Employees failing to exercise their right to request vacation within the vacation selection time posted by the Employer will forfeit their seniority rights with respect to choice of vacation time. In such cases, the Employer reserves the right to schedule vacation time for the employee. Requests made outside of the vacation selection process will be responded to by the Employer within fourteen (14) business days of being submitted to them.

A maximum of two (2) weeks of vacation time may be carried forward from one year to another. Employees who wish to carry vacation forward should notify the Employer by January 31st.

If the employee has not requested all of their vacation leave, the Employer reserves the right to schedule the remaining vacation days within the last four (4) months of the calendar year. The Employer may also pay out unused vacation credits at the end of March each calendar year.

14.04 Employees are expected to schedule vacation leave in blocks of one or more full weeks. However, requests for vacation leave of less than one (1) week will be considered where valid reasons exist. Such requests will not be unreasonably denied.

14.05 Vacation pay to which an employee is entitled shall be paid to the employee at least one (1) calendar day before the beginning of their vacation, provided that the employee gives the Employer at least fourteen (14) days written advance notice and the regular benefit deductions will apply to the advance pay provided. The amount of their vacation pay shall be based on the number of workdays of planned absence due to vacation for each vacation period.

ARTICLE 15 - PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

15.01 For the first three (3) months of continuous service with the Employer, an employee shall be a probationary employee. For the purposes of this provision only, any absence from work during this period will not be included in the calculation of continuous service. By written mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, the probationary period may be extended by one (1) month, provided written reasons are given for requesting such extension.

15.02 The Employer may suspend, discipline or discharge a probationary employee for any reason satisfactory to the Employer. Such matters will not be subject to the grievance procedure, provided the Employer acts in good faith in the suspension, discipline or discharge of a probationary employee.

ARTICLE 16 - SENIORITY

Such mailing shall be to the last address of the employee that the Employer has in its files for that employee and such mailings shall be deemed to have been received by the

Such information shall be provided in electronic format, such as Microsoft Excel, and will be provided securely in an agreed upon fashion.

The parties agree that this provision does not prevent the Employer from simultaneously commencing an external recruitment process.

“Vacancy” means a position the Employer requires to be filled and, at the time of the commencement of the vacancy, is of a known duration of 60 calendar days or more. In any event, a temporary position must be posted when it exceeds 60 calendar days.

- a) Evaluations
- b) Past Performance
- c) Required qualifications

Where two or more employees are relatively equal for a position, seniority will be the deciding factor.

17.04 The Employer reserves the right to determine if a vacancy exists and to reallocate lines to meet operational requirements. However, should the Employer not fill a vacated position or reallocate existing positions, notice will be provided to the Union. Upon request the parties will meet to consider input and alternatives proposed by the Union and to discuss the effects of the Employer's decision.

The Employer will make every effort to provide advance notice, where possible.

17.05 A copy of all postings shall be sent to the local of the Union within the aforementioned seven (7) calendar days.

18.01 The Employer shall provide the Union with its job descriptions for the classifications in the bargaining unit set out in Schedule A.

Such descriptions are subject to change and do not limit the Employer's right to assign other duties to an employee, whether on a permanent or temporary basis. Prior to implementing any changes to existing job descriptions, the Employer will provide advance notice to the Union. Upon request, the parties will meet to consider input and alternatives proposed by the Union.

18.02 When the Employer establishes a new bargaining unit position, it shall provide the Union with a job description and the wage rate established by the Employer. Should the Union disagree with the wage rate, the matter may be referred to arbitration.

A laid off employee who bumps a junior employee shall be paid at the rate of the classification they are bumping into, at the rate corresponding with their previous placement on the wage grid.

20.05 Recall

Employees on layoff shall be recalled in order of seniority, subject to their willingness, qualifications and ability to do the work available. It shall be sufficient for the Employer to send notice of recall to the employee by registered mail to the employee's last known address.
